Glazed Porcelain Tile

Translation of classic and timeless beauty.

The statuary marble of a cava on the Monte Altissimo was Michelangelo's favorite and was the raw material for sculpting one of his most famous works, David. Reproduced in porcelanato, the Michelangelo marble is the translation of classic and timeless beauty. Surface with large extremely white areas that are sometimes surprised by smoky veins in a cold gray with pinches of gold. It is like describing a jewel, where every detail enhances the beauty of the whole.
